

Multiplying with Tens

Solve each problem.

1. Juice boxes come in cases of 24. A school ordered 480 juice boxes. How many cases of juice boxes did the school order?
2. John has 630 baseball cards. He sorts the cards into stacks of 30 cards. How many stacks can he make?

3. A bank received a supply of 2,000 quarters. Each roll of quarters has 40 quarters in it. How many rolls of quarters did the bank receive?
4. There are 10 tickets in each strip of carnival tickets. A total of 3,850 tickets were sold in one day. How many strips of tickets were sold that day?

5.  Write Math Explain what strategy you used to solve Problem 3.
